Ffffff Numb. 3891.

The Daily Courant.

Wednesday, April 14. 1714.

London, April 14.
Yesterday arrived a Mail from France.

From the Paris Gazette, dated April 21.
Madrid, April 2.

THE King accompanied by the Prince, assisted all the Holy Week and on Easter-Day at divine Service, in the Church of the bare-footed Trinitarians of this City, and on Holy Thursday he washed the Feet of twelve poor Men, and served them at Table in the Library of that Monastry. The 30th of last Month in the Morning, the Cardinal del Giudice, grand Inquisitor, accompanied by the Prince de Cellemare his Nephew, set out from hence with Horses and Carriages of the King's Stable. The 31st a Courier arrived from England, with the News that the Peace between Spain and England was proclaimed at London the 12th of March, with great Solemnity, and extraordinary Joy of the People. The Letters from the Camp before Barcelona advise, that the 19th of last Month at 8 in the Morning, 4 French Men of War commanded by M. du Casse, arrived at the Road, having left the Transports at Palamos, because of the bad Weather, there to wait till the Sea is more calm, in order to put ashore the Preparations of War which were put on board them at Toulon. A Brigade of Ingeniers were likewise arrived for the Siege of Barcelona. The Deserters, who come out every Day, do all confirm that there was in the Town an extraordinary Scarcity of Provisions, and that the Inhabitants persisted however in their obstinate Determination to defend themselves.

Paris, April 21. The 19th the King took a Review of the French and Swiss Guards in the Plains of Ouille. The same Day the Peace was proclaimed between the King and the Emperour, with the ordinary Ceremonies, in the principal Places of this City.

From the Paris Letter, dated April 21.

Paris, April 21. 'Tis advised from Girone the 5th Instant, that 20 Battallions of French were arrived in the Lampourdan, to go and joyn the Army of Spain; and that the Barceloners had sent out another Pacquet of Letters to the Duke de Popoli for the King, by which they offer to surrender upon certain Conditions; but that the Duke de Popoli had let them know that his Catholick Majesty's Will was they should yield at Discretion without any other Capitulation, and that if they staid till the Trenches were opened, no Quarter would be given them. The Marquis de Brancas arrived at Court from Madrid, almost at the same time as the Cardinal del Giudice, whose Journey affords Matter for divers Speculations.

Cadiz, March 28. 'There is a new Regulation 'in the West-India Trade: The King will be con- 'cerned one fourth Part in all the Ships and La- 'dings, and 17 one half per Cent upon the intrin- 'sick value of all Goods, in the Form noted at 'Foot, and each Ship must carry at his own Ex- 'pence a Judge, a Lawyer, and Scrivener, to see 'all things be done according to the new Regula- 'tion, which contains other Circumstances and Con- 'ditions. Here is also come an Order from Court to 'take away all Gracias (or Abatements in the 'Customs of Goods) neither Alpie del Fardo nor 'at La Tabla, but to make all Goods pay the 'full Customs upon their Valuations, as well for- 'reign Goods that comes in, as Fruits of the Coun- 'try shipped out, so a Piece of Long Ells that paid '10 Rials Plate will cost now 24, and a Pipe of 'Wine or Oyl will cost 20 Pieces of Eight Duty 'out. This has been represented at Madrid, but 'what Effect it will have time must inform, mean 'while all Trade is at a stand.

'The Buenos Ayres Ships, and the Fleta from 'New Spain, are expected here in June.

'Commadore Padden is returned from Meque- 'nez to Tetuan, where he is with all the English 'Slaves. He has made a Peace, but there is still 'something to do before he and the Slaves can 'come off. He has sent two Officers to Eng- 'land, from whence he expects an Answer; but 'in the mean time the Shipping will pass un- 'molested by the Moors.

'The West-India Trade must pay,

'Five per Cent upon the Value at sending out.

'Two and a half per Cent upon the Value at 'landing in the Indies.

'Five per Cent upon the Returns at Ship- 'ping in the West Indies.

'Five per Cent upon landing them in Spain.

Dunkirk, April 9. 'The Transports sailed this 'Morning, as did also the Marines and Galley- 'Slaves. Yesterday Morning about 150 began to 'demolish on both Sides of the Bason, and there 'are several Carpenters at work to prepare Tim- 'ber for the stopping of the Sluyce in the Bason; 'and they have marked out the Ground between 'the Sluyce Bourbourg and old Mardyke, for the 'new Canal; and 'tis said there will shortly be 'some Hundred of Men here to be employed in 'that Affair.
